WHAT: “The Bark Heard Around the World”

WHERE: Yates County Fairgrounds, Old Rte 14A, Penn Yan, NY 14527.

WHEN: Saturday May 17th 10-4pm

We are pleased to invite you to be a part of “The Bark Heard Around the World” to be held at the Yates County Fairgrounds in Penn Yan NY from 10am-4pm on May 17th, 2008. Co-hosted by Pupymillrescue.com and the Beverly Animal Shelter in Waterloo NY, this is an event to bring awareness to the plight of the puppy mill dog. It will be a day filled with educational speakers, music, vendors, an animal communicator and demonstrations. Visit with more than 20 local and National rescues, and get the chance to see the wonderful dogs they have for adoption.

Speakers for this event include Franklin McMillan DVM from the Best Friends Sanctuary in Utah - <http://www.bestfriends.org/atthesanctuary/>, Mike Harder from the European Hockey League, Dana Beck Harder - author and lawyer and Carl Darby DVM from Seneca County.

We are thrilled to be able to have with us the art Exhibit “Puppies are Biodegradable” <http://www.puppiesarebiodegradable.com> Unspeakable violence is taking place in Puppy Mills - the show consists of original artwork created especially in support of the cause. The range of artists reflects the diversity of contemporary art practices, and unites them into one theme: They give voice to the tortured lives of thousands of dogs.

Come and meet the amazing gentlemen from Rescue Ink www.rescueink.com and hear about their efforts to rescue dogs wherever they need their help. The main thing that brings them together is their love of animals. They met because they were all doing the same thing in their spare time: rescuing and finding homes for abandoned and abused animals.

Gail Furst of K-9 Healers will be conducting the Canine Good Citizen test at the event.

Please join us for a candlelight vigil at the Geneva Chamber of Commerce building at 8pm on Friday the 16th. The chamber building is located on Routes 5 and 20 on the waterfront in downtown Geneva.
